NLCU Named one of the Best Places to Work in Atlantic Canada by *Progress Magazine

(St. John's, NL): Newfoundland and Labrador Credit Union (NLCU) has once again been named one of the Best Places to Work in Atlantic Canada during a reception at The Westin Hotel in Halifax on Friday, June 5th. It was named one of the top employers in Atlantic Canada by Progress Magazine, placing #4 of all employers in the region. This will mark the 8th consecutive year that NLCU has been recognized by the magazine.

Laurie Roberts, Director Human Resources, was there to accept the award on behalf of NLCU. "To be recognized as one of Atlantic Canada's Best Places to Work is a wonderful honor and a true testament to our corporate culture." Ms. Roberts stated. "Throughout NLCU, the unrelenting importance of engaged employees working together in a positive work environment helps us achieve one of the top corporate cultures in the industry."

Best Places to Work, by Progress Magazine is dedicated to finding and recognizing Atlantic Canada's best employers in the region, awarding the employers who make it a priority to create better workplaces for their employees, and highlighting organizations that go above and beyond when it comes to putting employee engagement front and center in their corporate philosophies.

"The success of the NLCU team is a direct reflection of the organization's culture of continuous learning and career development." Allison Chaytor-Loveys, CEO stated "This notion of life-long learning, alongside our employees' dedication to providing the best service to members makes NLCU not only a top financial institution in our province, but one of the best places to work in the country."

Newfoundland and Labrador Credit Union knows its employees make a difference and acknowledges their dedicated service. Over 68% of open positions are filled internally, as NLCU promotes a culture of continuous learning, covering the full cost of tuition and books for learning and development activities that enhance employees' skills and knowledge. As an incentive, NLCU provides employees with a bonus for successfully completing their courses. NLCU also offers mentoring, cross-training, job shadowing, and has regular coaching sessions with employees that focus on both personal and professional development.

The list of the Best Places to Work in Atlantic Canada names companies with the best practices among our region's employers, as graded by their own employees.
